SEATTLE, Jan. 7.—A high wind early today put an end for a time at least to the heavy rain which has flooded the lowlands in Western Washington in the last five days, giving the smaller streams a chance to discharge the storm water into the sea. The wind tore down telephone and telegraph lines, adding to the troubles of the railroad companies, but they welcomed the change as it promised relief from the mud slides which have been interfering with the prompt handling of traffic.

Reports received at the offices of all the railroads showed conditions in the mountains such as to cause no fear of snow trouble for the present. At Satick on the Great Northern the ground is bare where a year ago the snow was 20 feet deep, and at Tye, still higher in the mountains, the snow is only two and a half feet deep.

SNOW NOT DEEP.

At Summit, the highest point on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul's line across the Cascade range, there is 3½ feet of snow, as against 18 feet a year ago. The Northern Pacific reported 3 feet of snow along its line over the mountains.

Avalanches of mud on the steep hill-sides of West Seattle wrecked two houses last night and caused the first fatality resulting from the heavy rains which have been falling over Western Washington since Friday.

BABY IS KILLED.

The home of Simon Booth, an Indian, was wrecked last night by a mud slide near Alki avenue and Fauntleroy street. Booth's 3-year-old baby was killed and six other members of his family were injured but will recover. Mrs. Booth, a white woman, was pinned down by the wreckage and was nearly buried by the slide when rescuers dug her out. Another house near Fauntleroy Park slid a block down the steep hillside toward the beach, but none of the occupants was injured.

The hill-side between the Seattle city hall and the King county courthouse, which has given trouble for twenty-five years, is slipping rapidly, and all but two of the wooden houses in the two blocks east of the city hall have collapsed. The remaining houses are toppling. They were condemned long ago and the financial loss on the structures is small.

Viewed from the city hall the occupant of the house is seen to be

Precinct Work Is Difficult, Say Women

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—Because they often are mistaken for book agents and peddlers, women precinct workers are experiencing difficulty in making a poll of prospective women voters in the fashionable districts of the city, according to reports made today to the headquarters of the Chicago Equal Suffrage Association.

The poll is being made in an effort to learn how many women will take advantage of the provisions of the new suffrage law at the spring primaries.

EVERY VOTER SHOULD SEE THAT NAME IS ON REGISTER

If electors desire to vote at the approaching municipal election they must be sure that they are properly on the Alameda county register.

It must be remembered that no person can vote unless his or her name is on the great register. This is vital as the issue is whether the saloons shall rule the city of Oakland or whether the people of Oakland shall govern the saloons.

It is probable that the election to decide the important issue mentioned will take place about February 15, but the date has not yet been decided.

We need to see some name on the voter's certificate, otherwise they cannot vote.

"Styrian rays," together with some miscellaneous apparatus, mercury tubes, wireless antennae and a cleverly pieced-together panorama of the city of Oakland photographed on a circular disk, formed the working equipment of Samuel Spitz, inventor and seller of stock, in disposing of some $5000 worth of stock in Oakland. The police arrested Spitz last night and are holding him in detention because Assistant City Electrician George Tudhope was presented an expert opinion that "Styrian rays" were a myth and that the apparatus by means of which Spitz represented that he had obtained night pictures of territory within five miles of Oakland is a collection of junk.

Spitz had offices in the Bacon block and on the roof of the building erected a complicated system of masts and wires similar to that of a big wireless telegraph system. With this outfit, by a secret process, he claimed to be able to photograph the surrounding territory within a radius of five miles at night time, no matter how dark, moonless and foggy. He said he accomplished this by hitching the "Styrian rays" to the wireless electric waves in the atmosphere and collecting these by means of his wireless antennae, spark coil, "stepping up" apparatus and other fixtures, he brought the image to view on ground glass set within a ship's pinnacle.

INCORPORATES HIS RAYS.

On the basis of these representations Spitz organized and incorporated "The Wireless Spitzoscope Company" on a $1,000,000 basis and began selling stock at $1 per share. par. In Oakland and Mare Island and Vallejo Spitz sold stock in small lots, aggregating about $3000. Several stockholders drew the attention of the police to the matter and an investigation followed.

Spitz declared today that his discovery of the "Styrian rays" and invention of the Spitzoscope was susceptible of proof of a definite nature and that he could prove claims before a board of experts. He stated that the British government had investigated his invention and had offered him $1,000,000 for the exclusive rights in the Spitzoscope, to be used in warfare. CASE NOT CONCLUSIVE.

No charge has been placed against Spitz, and while he is held in custody the police are busily engaged in gathering evidence. If sufficient evidence that the invention cannot come up to the claims of Spitz is

President Becomes
Belated Santa Claus

PASS CHRISTIAN, Miss., Jan. 7.—President Wilson demonstrated his fondness for children, assuming the role of a belated Santa Claus and distributing boxes of candy to the youngsters along the route from the Gulfport golf links.

When news of Mr. Wilson's generosity spread among the children it became known that many of the youngsters who do not live along the route to the golf course, were disappointed. They were promised, however, that they would not be overlooked and when the supply of candy at the presidential cottage was sufficient to meet all demands.

A. J. Wallace in regard to the possibility of his being a candidate for re-election.

CAPITOL HEARS GOSSIP.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 7.—Now that Governor Johnson has stripped himself for battle, political tans are stirring under a breeze of interesting gossip. Rumors seem to be gradually taking shape and the corridors of the state capitol today buzzed loudly.

The Governor's decision to run again was made a week ago, but the tans just where they stand, and in consequence they are now strong up behind the band wagon.

Representative John E. Baker, whose name had been mentioned in connection with the gubernatorial chair, will now turn his attention to the Senate, provided Senator J. B. Curtin and State Senator J. E. Sanford.

... J. E. Baker, of Los Angeles and Sheriff W. A. Hammel of the same county will likely be Republican candidates for the gubernatorial nomination.

The Democratic aspirants for Governor, as picked here, include Fred Hall of Bakersfield, Sidney Van Wyck of San Francisco, J. E. P. F. of Sacramento, commissioner-general of immigration.

WHEELER A POSSIBILITY.

Still another senatorial possibility is Charles S. Wheeler, the San Francisco lawyer, through Wheeler has told his friends he did not want the job and would not take it.

The Democratic aspirants for Governor, as picked here, include Fred Hall of Bakersfield, Sidney Van Wyck of San Francisco, J. E. P. F. of Sacramento, and Senator J. B. Curtin and State Senator J. E. Sanford.

... J. E. Baker, of Los Angeles and Sheriff W. A. Hammel of the same county will likely be Republican candidates for the gubernatorial nomination.

Joseph R. Knowland, E. A. (Red) Hayes and Samuel M. Shortridge are all mentioned among Republicans as senatorial timber, while the Democrats are routing James D. Phelan.

WALLACE AND HIS PLANS.

Lieutenant-Governor Wallace has not yet announced whether he will seek to be Governor Johnson's running mate or not, but those who are anxious for the support of the south think Wallace will have to join with Johnson.

State Controller John S. Chambers will be a candidate for re-election. State Superintendent of Public Instruction Hyatt is not decided whether he will run again or not; State Treasurer E. D. Roberts announced that he would retire to private life. So far no one has mentioned as a candidate for the job, though there will be plenty.

J. O'Brien of Chico, secretary of the state exposition, will be a Progressive candidate for secretary of state. Frank Jordan will be a candidate for re-election to the same office.

Surgeon-General Kinsolving will seek re-election and will probably align himself with the Progressives. The last legislature made the office of State Printer and Clerk of the Supreme Court ap-pointable.

Wife of Aviator Beachey Divorced

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—A final divorce decree was granted today to Mrs. May Beachey, wife of Lincoln Beachey, the dare devil aviator who has made several contracts to fly in Oakland. Mental and physical cruelty were charged by Mrs. Beachey in her complaint filed a little over a year ago. The evidence was heard by Superior Judge Graham.

CALIFORNIA GETS RACING CLASSICS

Motor News Gleaned from the Day's Events for Tribune Readers.

(By EDMUND CRINNIN) As was told exclusively in THE TRIBUNE some months ago, California is to stage the annual Vanderbilt Cup and the Grand Prize races this year on the famous Santa Monica road, a course which is the fastest on the course in the world or February of this year. The following dispatches received this morning from New York confirm THE TRIBUNE's advance story.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—For the first mobile racing the Grand Prize and Vanderbilt cup are to be held this year west of the Mississippi river. The two major prizes are to be given to Los Angeles' Motor Cup Holding Association. The races will be run on the famous Santa Monica. Announcement of the conclusion of negotiations for the staging of the races in California was made tonight by Leon T. Shettler, vice-president of the Western Automobile Association, which will carry on the race. Shettler has been in touch for six weeks with W. E. Vanderbilt, Jr., Harry D. Whitney and other leaders of national and international automobile racing. The formal agreement was concluded, president of the Club of America and representative of the Motor Car Holding Association.

The Automobile Club of America has sanctioned the Grand Prize race to be run in Los Angeles, and Shettler said he had been assured that the American Automobile Association would sanction the Vanderbilt cup event.

Savannah, Ga.—Walter C. Long Island motor parkers' "C" and "D" cars for the races. It is understood that the Western Automobile Association was the only organization which could activity for the privilege of running the events. According to Shettler who has been in communication with automobile makers, a list of entrants for the Vanderbilt cup event larger than for any previous national race has been assured while a large entry for the international Grand Prize contest also is certain.

NEW MARATHON CARS ARRIVE

The Lanz-Barlow Company, Northern California and Nevada distributors of the Marathon line, placed on display yesterday the first of the "16 cars" of this popular-priced car. In the exhibition were both the touring car and roadster models, and the show rooms were high in their praise of the general appearance and driving qualities of the cars. The cars will have on display samples of the leather turned out by the fast-growing Tennessee factory, and they will show the motoring public some high-class cars at reasonable prices. Since his return from the factory last month Lanz has been busily engaged for the Marathon line throughout the country, and he predicts a record year for the car in this part of the country.

NEW AUTO SALESHOME

Another evidence of the stability of the automobile industry in San Francisco was evidenced yesterday in the announcement by S. M. Crim, president of the San Francisco chapter of the R. A. Automobile Company, that it had secured the lease of the building erected for the Speedwell Company, on Van Ness avenue, near California street. As a result of the deal the Reliance Company, which had been occupying the building in the new automobile row and will be in an excellent position to handle its increasing business.

COURT TO HEAR TEST CASE TODAY

The habeas corpus proceedings instituted by Percy L. Towne, one of the legal advisers of the California Automobile Association, to test the constitutionality of the new State automobile tax will be heard by the supreme court today and an early ruling is anticipated, as pending the decision the various officers in the various cities and counties of the state are not employing the state. The motorists feel certain that they will be victorious in knocking down the license tax, which, when they had it special legislation.

CADILLAC HONORED

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Henry M. Le land, managing director of the Cadillac Motor Car Company of Detroit, was elected president today of the Society of Automobile Engineers.

Le land is one of the pioneers in the automobile industry. During his administration the Cadillac has become one of the foremost cars in the country. He succeeds Howard Marmon as head of the society.

SCENIC ROAD ASSURED

SAN JOSÉ, Jan. 7.—The money, to buy a strip through the Santa Cruz forest for a scenic cutaway in the Santa Cruz mountains or road to the California State Redwood Park in the Big Basin has been paid by public subscription in San Jose and Santa Clara county, and the administration of a road committee has been put into the park is assured.

AVIATOR LIKES AUTOS

Glenn H. Curtiss aeroplane builder is about to begin his aeronautical examinations abroad and will take with him a new Jeffery car which he has just purchased.

After a demonstration Curtiss said: "I have been running the new Jeffery car and I find it is as good as it looks and a mechanical masterpiece. The machine is to create in every respect and incorporates the latest European practice throughout. It has more power and speed. Is easy riding and very easy to handle. The engine is quiet and runs exceptionally well or direct drive at top speeds."

EMBEZZLER-DESFRT WAS HOTEL KEEPER HERE

DETROIT, Jan. 7.—It is not often that a son after deserting from the army succeeds in traveling the world over as an independent gentleman and settling down as proprietor of a hotel in the United States. This is the story revealed by the agents of a C. I. D. Paris had remained in America things probably would have been all right for him but he had a lesson to learn.

Before he had become a soldier the man had been in the transport service in France when fourteen years ago he appropriated $80,000. He hid the money, left France and enlisted in the French army. When stationed at St. Malo he learned that he had been traced and was suspected of the robbery. He at once deserted and disappeared.

He traveled to Canada and the United States and settled down as proprietor of a hotel in one of the large New England towns. Finally he came to Paris, France.

He forgotten. But, no, he had been only a few days lodged in a respectable hotel when he was traced and arrested. When he was tried he had $2000 in his pockets.

He was sentenced to 15 years in prison. He was released on parole after serving 10 years.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE IN NATIONAL MEET

Democratic Organizations Represented by 500 Delegates in Annual Meet.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—With her election to the presidency practically assured by an unusually large number of pledged votes, Mrs. Win A. Culver, wife of Representative Cuthbert Culver, ranking leader of the women's National Temperance League, called the league to order here today, in its second annual convention. More than 500 delegates representing every woman's organization in the United States were in attendance.

Mrs. M. Lobas of 1474 Page street notified the Park station that some time yesterday her room had been entered and an amateur purse containing $3 had been stolen.

FINED FOR CLEANLINESS.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—Ambrose Hawkins, a Negro who was caught washing his underwear in his cell, Judge Joseph Clark had promised to address the delegates, but was confined to his home with a severe cold. Joe W. Folsom, collector of the State department, is in his place.

Miss M. Porter Hopkins, collector of the league, announced today that the convention would not undertake to re-commence any new legislation this year but would remain neutral until Congress or the Senate acted on the bills now pending.

The afternoon Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall Mrs. Bryan and several other members of the cabinet officiated in the opening ceremony.

The delegates, including Senator from Tennessee are prominently mentioned for the first vice-presidency.

Miss L. A. Ashville, N. C. for her health but her friends are making a play for her election.

EMBEZZLER-DESFRT WAS HOTEL KEEPER HERE

DETROIT, Jan. 7.—It is not often that a son after deserting from the army succeeds in traveling the world over as an independent gentleman and settling down as proprietor of a hotel in the United States. This is the story revealed by the agents of a C. I. D.

Paris had remained in America things probably would have been all right for him but he had a lesson to learn.

Before he had become a soldier the man had been in the transport service in France when fourteen years ago he appropriated $80,000. He hid the money, left France and enlisted in the French army.

When stationed at St. Malo he learned that he had been traced and was suspected of the robbery.

He at once deserted and disappeared.

He traveled to Canada and the United States and settled down as proprietor of a hotel in one of the large New England towns.

Finally he came to Paris, France.

He forgotten. But, no, he had been only a few days lodged in a respectable hotel when he was traced and arrested.

When he was tried he had $2000 in his pockets.

He was sentenced to 15 years in prison.

He was released on parole after serving 10 years.

EXPRESS HOPES THAT ENGLAND WILL EXHIBIT

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—Amazed at the revelations of progress in the building of the Panama-Pacific exposition, Sir Robert Balfour, and Lord Rich and Farwell Herschell, who were shown the American site yesterday, expressed the hope that the British government might still be adequately represented at the exposition either by a reconsideration of its previous action, or by individual exhibits. The enthusiasm expressed by both visitors was unbounded, and the exposition officials are assured that their visit will bear definite results in bringing about a fitting English representation.

Lord Herschell arrived yesterday from South America on a tour of the world. After a brief visit here, he will return to Japan. Sir Robert Balfour, who is a member of the firm of Balfour-Guthrie & Company, has been in San Francisco ten days.

Sir Robert and Lord Herschell were impressed particularly with the beauty of the location, the docking facilities and the transportation arrangements for handling ships. A luncheon to the two visitors will be given Friday by the exposition directors at the Palace Hotel.

All World Reflected In Camera's Eye
Kodak Enlargements Are Wonderful

MISS ELSIE MCLEOD, LEADING LADY IN THE MOTION PICTURE STORY, "THE KODAK HONEY-MOON," AT THE KODAK EXHIBITION, HOTEL OAKLAND.

Never before has Oakland been afforded such an exceptional opportunity to see a collection of photographic masterpieces as in the Eastman Kodak Company's exhibition, which opened this afternoon at the Oakland Hotel.

Pictures taken under all conditions in the sunshine, in the shadow, in fog and rain, at noon and at night, in every country on the globe, have their testimony to artistic heights that have been attained by the picture-taking art. Their individual attractions are enhanced by the effective group arrangements and the successful light effects that characterize the entire exhibition.

HISTORICAL PICTURES.

Standing foremost on the long list of 505 enlargements is the collection of Indian photographs made on the Wamakar historical expeditions in 1905. As an allegorical masterpiece, "The Sunset of a Dying Race" might take a place in the foremost art gallery of the country. The picture reveals an Indian, armed and in war dress, sitting astride a wild mustang on the brow of a rugged hill. He gazes into the sunset beyond the lowering clouds faintly touched by fleecy lines of light, and though his back is turned one can vividly imagine the lines on his bronzed and weatherbeaten countenance, impressed by the recollections of days when his race was in its prime.

"Climbing a Western Slope" shows a band of Indians stealing through the ravines, silhouetted against the burnished western sky. The picture of Chief Two Moons, who led the redskins in their charge against Custer, is a remarkably finished portrait of an aged and wrinkled sage.

ALL PARTS OF WORLD.

The collection carries one through the Arctic regions with its delicately tinted snow and ice; into the cities with their quaint peoples and streets; through the African jungles, with the big game and tropical scenery. Groups are devoted to sport, to flowers and landscapes, and practically every phase of life is touched upon.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE FEATURE.

The drawing feature of the exhibition is the illustrated lecture by Dr. William Torrence Stuchell, for twelve years staff lecturer of the New York Board of Education. Dr. Stuchell's ambition is to educate and he does not lose sight of his purpose in his lectures. In an hour's time he conveys to the audience a vivid idea of the dominating characteristics of a score of countries, touching only on points that are of a vital and enduring interest. His capable work as lecturer is amply supported by the assortment of artistic hand-colored slides.

His subject for the afternoon was "The Kodak in Many Lands," in which his audience was taken on a trip round the world and shown every point of interest in passing. Tonight's subject will be "Out in the Open with a Kodak."

Following Dr. Stuchell's lecture is a motion picture program, featuring clever educational drama that depend on pictures and picture talking for a plot. Practical instruction, too, has its place in the program. The entire exhibition is a monument of the enterprise of the Eastman Kodak Company.

BREAKS THROUGH GUARDS AT FORT WINFIELD SCOTT

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—With a large "P" scrawled on his back and on the leg of his trousers Fred M. Hermon, a prisoner, succeeded in breaking through the guards at Fort Winfield Scott last night and is at liberty. It is probable that Hermon had friends in waiting and was able to change his attire, but whether or not he was in league with persons on the outside, he succeeded in getting completely away from the reservation. Hermon was a general prisoner accused of a misdemeanor. He is 21, has blue eyes, dark brown hair and fair complexion.

COMPLAINT AGAINST

PACIFIC ELECTRIC DROPPED

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 7.—Stating that it was unfair to the commission and the defendants to file a case without being prepared to substantiate it, the state railroad commission yesterday dismissed the complaint of the Los Angeles State Association against the rates and service of the Pacific Electric Company.

"If the commission were to permit such practices," declared Commissioner E. O. Eggerston from the bench, "it would be possible for an individual to question every rate of every company in the state and then put the burden of proof on the shoulders of the commission."

JOHNSON RE-ARRESTED IN LICENSE PROCEEDING

STOCKTON, Jan. 7.—Secretary H. L. Johnson of the National Mercantile Company of Vancouver, which conducts a building and loan business in this state, was re-arrested today charged with conducting a business without a license after being released yesterday following habeas corpus proceedings.

Action was brought against Johnson by G. S. Walker, state building and loan commissioner, following Johnson's refusal to deposit $50,000 with the state treasurer as required by building and loan laws of California. Johnson contend that being a foreign corporation his company was subject to the laws of this state and the superior court ruled in his favor. The case having been heard

LAIDS TAKE PARENTS' COIN AND RUN AWAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—After taking $175 belonging to their parents, all the money they could lay their hands on, Dewey Ober, aged 17, and Lloyd Garber, aged 15, ran away from their homes in Alameda yesterday. It was at first believed that the lads were in the neighborhood of the Hotel Del Monte, but later several of their companions informed the police that the boys had confided to them that they were going to San Francisco. Inquiry developed that they left Monterey on the 6:05 train last night. The police here have been asked to look out for them and a detail has been sent to the neighboring railroad stations.

STABBED IN FACE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—Charles Gho, 2948 Stockton street, was slashed across the cheek, receiving a wound which will probably mark him for life, as the result of an encounter at an early hour this morning. After Gho had been taken for treatment to the Harbor hospital, Fred Lansdowne, a private in the Twenty-seventh company, coast artillery, was arrested and placed in the dock on suspicion of having done the stabbing.

STORM HELPS THE VALLEY FARMERS

NEW UTILITIES LEAGUE IS FORMED

All Interests Aided and No Damage Done is Report from Sacramento.

Drenching Did Good in All Parts of District and Was Wealth Maker.

Sacramento, Jan. 7.—To contradict impressions given out that the Sacramento area was greatly damaged by floods during the recent high water period, Secretary O. H. Miller of the Sacramento Valley Development Association yesterday

The recent storm, which brought an abundance of moisture to the Sacramento valley, was invaluable to all interests. The ground, because of the two preceding dry years, was greatly in need of a thorough soaking. Fortunately the storm ceased before any material damage was suffered because of high water and floods, so that it was a blessing, the value of which runs into many millions of dollars.

Stockton, Jan. 7.—The customers of the Marion Saloon of this city are getting used to being held up, and the novelty of the thing has sort of worn off. Woodland, Jan. 7.—An unexpected compromise in the case of Clarence Mueller, a six-year-old lad whose leg was cut off in a timber accident, was effected today by the Southern Pacific Company two days before the second trial was to begin. The boy

"People's Forum" Organizes After Reaching Compromise by Ousting Socialists.

Labor Delegates Seated and Officers Elected for Ensuring Year.

Can a man represent a women's club in a public utilities conference?

This was one of a series of technical questions, thrashed out amid considerable argument and some acrimony, when merce building last night the Public Utilities League, as formed through the efforts of the Alameda County Civic Association, was permanently organized. At the recent temporary organization Socialist and union labor delegates were seated, to the anger of many improvement clubs, which withdrew. Last night a compromise was reached, all union labor organizations believing in public ownership of public utilities to be admitted, while the Socialist delegates turned. No public officials, political organizations, and no candidates for office will be eligible to a new organization known as "a people's forum."

The organization effected permanent organization last night by choosing the following officers:

L. B. Magoo of the Seminary Park Improvement Club, president; H. G. St. Roehmeyer of the Machinists' Union, first vice-president; Dr. H. F. Desau of the Home Rule Taxation Club, second vice-president; W. E. Gibson of the Chamber of Commerce, third vice-president; W. A. Spooner of the Central Labor Council, recording secretary; L. E. Van der Naufer of the Central Oakland Civic Club, financial secretary and treasurer; H. T. Burns of the Golden Gate Improvement Club, sergeant-at-arms, and George Nisbet of the Journeyman Tailors' Union, assistant sergeant-at-arms.

The committee on credentials, which will have control over the admission of members, consists of Green Majors, C. A. Tobe, Edwin Stearns, Benjamin Wilson and Mrs. A. C. Christensen.

NOVEL POINT RAISED.

Whether George Ingraham, an attorney residing in the annexed district was eligible as a candidate from a woman's organization was a hotly contested point at the meeting. Ingraham, who was given his seat, Ingraham appeared declaring that he represented the Women's Council of East Oakland and Sachrach chairman of the organization committee objected.

"You're no woman," he informed the attorney. "I don't see how you can represent a women's organization."

"Certainly I can," said Ingraham, "and I have a client who is a woman. It's the same thing."

"But here you have to be an eligible member to the organization you represent," said Backrach.

Mrs. A. C. Christensen, the other delegate from the council, came to the support of Ingraham, insisting that the women had a perfect right to be represented by an attorney if they wished.

"Or by anyone else for that matter," she declared. Ingraham was finally allowed a seat.

Harold Everhart, former city councilman, acted as temporary chairman of the convention last night, until Magoo's election when the latter took the chair. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, February 3.

The meeting for organization two weeks ago resulted in the United Improvement Club east of Lake Merritt withdrawing when Socialists and labor men were admitted, but it is believed that the compromise of last night may bring them into the fold again.

The purpose of the organization is to represent public utility companies in the view to forming a municipal water or municipal traction district in the future.

ELECTRIC TRAIN RUNS DOWN AND KILLS BOY

Unable to distinguish a dark object at the side of the track, Engineer Thomas Kelly, in charge of an east-bound Southern Pacific electric train ran down and instantly killed 10-year-old Jose Luis Salcedo, son of Damacio Salcedo, wealthy Mexican attorney, between the Alameda and the West Alameda station at 6:10 o'clock last night. The body was taken to the morgue after being rushed to the Receiving Hospital.

The boy was loitering along the track in front of the train and had evidently been in the act of picking up a rock to throw into the water nearby, as his hand clutched a large stone when he was picked up. He was unable to speak a word of English and had apparently lost his way.

The boy's father, who lives at 906 Broadway, San Francisco, came from Mexico three days ago, driven from the country by rebels. The lad had been placed in charge of an aunt, Mrs. Rosa Dominguez, of Weber street, Alameda. The train was in charge of Engineer Kelly and Conductor H. J. Perera.

TALK TO REES
ON HARBOR
PLANSMayor Heywood Urges Bonds
for a Million for Berkeley's Waterfront.City Engineer Declares His Project Approximates that of Army Man.

BERKELEY, Jan. 7.—The city council met this afternoon in committee of the whole in conference with Colonel Thomas H. Rees, U. S. A., in a renewed effort to fix a sum of agreement upon which the proposed Berkeley harbor work may commence. The conference was adjourned in the late afternoon.

The city engineer also attended the conference this afternoon. He pointed out that the plans he proposes agree in general with those of Colonel Rees with the change proposed of moving the ship channel seaward to increase the reclaimable area and with the addition thereto of provision for direct entrance. They conform, he declared, with the bulkhead line established on the recommendation of Colonel Rees in January a year ago.

HEYWOOD'S OPINION.

Mayor Heywood is of the opinion, despite the opposition in his council, that no reduction in the amount fixed for Jessup's plan ought to be made. He said:

"It is absolutely imperative, if we proceed at all in this matter, that we proceed to vote for a sufficient sum at the start to complete the work. I am in favor of voting the entire million and I am confident that the people are with me. It would be silly in many ways, an additional burden to the citizens and an added and unnecessary expense to vote this sum in installments. We have expressed ourselves as favoring the plans of the city engineer, and we are substantially in accord with those of Colonel Rees, and I believe that now is the best time to act."

The proposition for splitting the proposed amount and voting two installments at the present time was made by Councilman E. Q. Turner. He declared he believed the million estimate too high. If the city votes at present but half that sum, declared Turner, it might well affect the financial assistance from the government that would make unnecessary the expenditure locally of the entire sum asked.

JESSUP PLANS.

Engineer Jessup's proposal calls for a gross expenditure of $965,840, but the sum of $1,000,000 was proposed for the bond issue as certain to cover all expenditures. The chief phases of the Jessup plan are the following:

A ship channel of sufficient width to accommodate most extensive traffic, and of adequate depth to serve large ships with freedom and safety. This channel will afford a direct outlet to deep water by which ships may enter from interior bay or river points or direct from Golden Gate without traversing a circuitous route and cutting numerous ferry and other lines of travel ever increasingly congested.

A harbor one (1) mile wide extending the entire length of the city from north to south boundary line.

A stone bulkhead along the proposed waterfront surmounted with wharves and extending out into the bay so cold piers all supplied with yards, roadways, and warehouses equipped with all modern appliances for the rapid and economical handling of freight.

This hall is used as an adjunct to the McElroy school. The board set aside $100 for equipment of the household arts department of the Hawthorne school.

Work Will Be Reviewed
All-Day Session for WomenBishop Hughes to Addres Members of Federation

BERKELEY, Jan. 7.—The Berkeley Federation of Churchwomen, recently organized, will hold an all-day session today for a first review of its work to date and for the formation of definite plans for future procedure. The gathering will be addressed by Bishop E. J. Holt Hughes of San Francisco and will be held at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Mrs. Annie Little Barry is president.

be held at 10:00 A.M. in the afternoon business matters will be considered. A recess will be taken at lunch time, after which the women will reconvene at 1:30 o'clock and listen to the address by Bishop Hughes.

It is expected that every church in the city which has membership in the federation will be represented at the morning session. The afternoon meeting is open to the public. Bishop Hughes' subject has not yet been announced.

The Berkeley Federation of Churchmen was formed in the late fall and held its first quarterly session since that time. The object of the federation is to promote churches and to promote interdenominational missionary work throughout the quarterly session since that time. The city engineer also attended the conference this afternoon. He pointed out that the plans he proposes agree in general with those of Colonel Rees with the change proposed of moving the ship channel seaward to increase the reclaimable area and with the addition thereto of provision for direct entrance. They conform, he declared, with the bulkhead line established on the recommendation of Colonel Rees in January a year ago.

HEYWOOD'S OPINION.

Mayor Heywood is of the opinion, despite the opposition in his council, that no reduction in the amount fixed for Jessup's plan ought to be made. He said:

"It is absolutely imperative, if we proceed at all in this matter, that we proceed to vote for a sufficient sum at the start to complete the work. I am in favor of voting the entire million and I am confident that the people are with me. It would be silly in many ways, an additional burden to the citizens and an added and unnecessary expense to vote this sum in installments. We have expressed ourselves as favoring the plans of the city engineer, and we are substantially in accord with those of Colonel Rees, and I believe that now is the best time to act."

The proposition for splitting the proposed amount and voting two installments at the present time was made by Councilman E. Q. Turner. He declared he believed the million estimate too high.

If the city votes at present but half that sum, declared Turner, it might well affect the financial assistance from the government that would make unnecessary the expenditure locally of the entire sum asked.

JESSUP PLANS.

Engineer Jessup's proposal calls for a gross expenditure of $965,840, but the sum of $1,000,000 was proposed for the bond issue as certain to cover all expenditures. The chief phases of the Jessup plan are the following:

A ship channel of sufficient width to accommodate most extensive traffic, and of adequate depth to serve large ships with freedom and safety. This channel will afford a direct outlet to deep water by which ships may enter from interior bay or river points or direct from Golden Gate without traversing a circuitous route and cutting numerous ferry and other lines of travel ever increasingly congested.

A harbor one (1) mile wide extending the entire length of the city from north to south boundary line.

A stone bulkhead along the proposed waterfront surmounted with wharves and extending out into the bay so cold piers all supplied with yards, roadways, and warehouses equipped with all modern appliances for the rapid and economic handling of freight.

4. Municipally owned electric belt line railway connecting all local or transcontinental lines, either steam or electric, that will carry freight from all main lines to ship or factory and provide complete interchange of products with minimum economy and facility of handling.

5. A channel for the development of inner harbor either north or south of present wharf.

6. The reclamation of 600 acres of state tide lands and from 1000 to 1500 acres of land outside thereof for factory sites, yards, parks, playgrounds, tanks, baths or for other industrial or municipal purposes.

ARMED AGAINST STOMACH TROUBLE

A Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet Carried in Your Purse or Vest Pocket Will Enable You to Always Keep Your Stomach in Line.

Don't let all sorts of stomach troubles, dyspepsia, gastritis, indigestion, diarrhea and vertigo make life a constant torture and an ultimate failure. The man who is going to succeed today must have his body, with mind and perfect working order. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a necessity to the man who would always have his body in subjection to him.

"I Eat When I Will, What I Want, Because After Each Meal I Take a Little Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet."

These tablets—peppermint and other ingredients—that the normal stomach secretes for the digestion of food. One or two of these tablets will completely digest the heaviest meal without any aid from the stomach. At the same time they tone up and strengthen the enfeebled stomach so that it is soon in a healthy condition again.

Prudent men always have a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets on hand. They may be taken certain times, when you know much is coming. Don't think because your stomach is usually all right that you don't need them. The policeman carries a revolver, not because he needs it all the time, but because when he does need it, he needs it right then. When you want relief from indigestion, you want relief at once. Be armed against stomach trouble with a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, 50 cents at any drug store. Successful men everywhere endorse them and rely upon them.

In honor of Rev. F. C. Gale, former pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city, the members of the Men's League of the church will act as hosts at a dinner to be given tomorrow evening at 6:30 in Maple Hall. The clergyman was the founder of the Men's League. Up to the time he left for missionary work in Nan Chang, China, he was very active in the organization. FREE CIGARETTE HOLDERS THIS WEEK

Local tobacco dealers give fine cigarette holders with Omar cigarettes.

In connection with the sale of Omar Cigarettes in this city, local dealers are giving free, for a few days, to each purchase of a pack of Omar, a handsome cigarette holder. This holder has the merit of being practical as well as attractive because, unlike the ordinary cigarette holder, it is extremely light and almost indestructible. The end in which the cigarette is inserted is made of German silver, while the stem and mouthpiece are hard rubber. It is the type of cigarette holder which is now most popular.

The gift of these cigarette holders through local dealers is made to insure an extensive trial of Omar Cigarettes because of the belief on the part of the manufacturers that smokers generally will like and continue using this brand. It is said that the pack is fully justified by results in other cities. Omar Cigarettes are described as a new Turkish blend of tobacco, with a fine, smooth and fragrant, which are "boldly different and unusually pleasant." The supply of cigarette holders on hand for distribution is limited and the local dealers are advised Tanker Oklahoma Found by Revenue Cutter in Path of Travel.

Bringing Bodies of Three Crew Members Taken from Lifeboat.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—The derelict of the tank steamer Oklahoma—the fore part of the vessel—which went to pieces on Sunday fifty miles south of Sandy Hook, was found yesterday by the revenue cutter Seneca. A wireless message from Captain C. E. Johnson of the Seneca, stated that he would destroy the derelict today as it is in the path of trans-Atlantic travel.

Tonight the message added the Seneca would start for New York bringing the bodies of three members of the crew of the Oklahoma which he took from a life boat yesterday. Two of the bodies Captain Johnson identified by means of papers.

CAPTAIN AND OFFICERS ARRIVE.

BOSTON, Jan. 7.—Captain Alfred Gunter and seven other officers and men of the oil tank steamer Oklahoma arrived here early today on the Hamburg-American liner Bavaria from Philadelphia, which had rescued them from their stricken craft Monday morning. Their story contained no details of the breaking in two of the vessel. There was no explosion, Captain Gunter said. He could advance no definite theory as to the cause of the buckling. Some of the under officers expressed the opinion that a weakness was developed amidships in the big tanker under the pounding of the heavy seas.

Only the life boats survived the wrecking of the gale before the steamer broke, Captain Gunter said. These were put over the side during a storm of driving sleet and a biting wind. The first, in which were eleven men, was swamped soon after it reached the water. The other lived through the seas and five of the eleven occupants were brought to shore in New York today.

"THANK GOD," SAYS CAPTAIN.

"Thank God. Too bad that more could not have been so fortunate," exclaimed Captain Gunter when he heard of the deliverance of these five men.

As to the breaking up of the steamer Captain Gunter said:

"I was standing on the bridge with the storm raging about us when there was a slight tearing sound! The sound increased, the ship seemed to be torn in two and the fore and after parts floated clear of each other. This was early Sunday morning. Later that day the Spanish steamer Manuel Calve, came up alongside the tanker.

"That Spaniard just fooled around," Captain Gunter said. "He put over a boat and then fooled around some more and finally picked up his boat and went away."

STEAMER STANDS BY.

Captain Gunter commanded the efforts of a fruit steamer, believed to be the Tenoros of the United Fruit Company, which stood by while the Bavaria rescued the eight men left aboard the steamer.

For the work of rescue accomplished by the boat's crew of the Bavaria, as a result of which eight men were saved, a hawser to safety in a life boat, Captain Gunter gave highest praise.

The Bavaria's boat was in command of Third Officer Richard Knocke, of whom Captain Gunter said:

"That man ought to have a Carnegie medal. His watermanship was perfect and he had the coolest head I ever saw."

Captain Gunter related how the life boat, manned also by Quartermasters Graff and Frey and Husted, Meinert and Nachter of the crew, labored through the storm up to the bow of the sinking tanker. The hawser was stretched between the Oklahoma and the lifeboat and the Oklahoma's survivors slipped down the hawser arms and legs.

Artistic Setting for Wedding Ceremony in Mass of Blooms

MISS ELIZA MCMULLEN, WHO WILL BE BRIDE OF JEAN GALLOIS THIS EVENING.

The wedding of Miss Eliza McMullen and Jean Gallois, although a quiet home ceremony to take place this evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Joseph H. Norris, in Vernon Heights, will be one of the most important social events of many a season. Miss McMullen is one of the smart sets of both Oaklawn and San Francisco and her marriage this evening has attracted the attention of all local society.

The ceremony will take place at 9 o'clock, the Rev. Father Robert Sessan officiating. The pretty home on the terrace will be transformed into a bower of roses which the designers have arranged in a most artistic setting.

WILL STREW FLOWERS.

Miss McMullen will be attended by her little nephew and niece, Little Cherry Stevenson and Master Jack Cook. The former will strew flowers before the path of the beautiful bride while Master Cook will serve as ring-bearer. The bride-elect will wear a most exquisite robe of white crepe, elaborated with Point Alencon lace, which was worn by her mother as a bride.

The marriage will unite two of the oldest and most aristocratic families of the state, and although the ceremony itself will be extremely quiet, owing to a recent bereavement in the McMullen family, half a hundred of the intimate friends and relatives of the two families will be present this evening.

Miss McMullen is the granddaughter of Mrs. John McMullen and a descendant of one of the oldest families of the South, which came to California in the early days of old South Park and Rincon Hill.

The bride-elect is a member of the Greenways, the Galesy Club, the Town and Country Club and a number of the smart clubs of the trans-Atlantic set. She is a niece of Mr. Charles Waller and moves in the same coterie as Miss Corinne de Pue, Miss Clara Otis, Mrs. Earl Shipp, Miss Ethel McAllister and others of the ultra-smart set.

Gallois is the son of the late Eugene and Mrs. Gallois, the former being vice-president of the White House.

WILL VISIT EUROPE.

Gallois has engaged passage aboard the Lusitania for Europe and immediately following the wedding the couple will sail for New York, where they will sail for the other continent. They will remain abroad for perhaps more than a year.

An event which nearly resulted in the postponement of the marriage was that of the sudden illness of Mrs. Horace Hill Jr., who was stricken while on her way from the East on the overland limited yesterday. Mrs. Hill was removed from the train at Omaha and Mrs. Eugene Gallois left immediately on receipt of the news for her daughter's bedside. As Mrs. Hill is on the road to recovery the wedding will not be postponed, although Mrs. Gallois and her daughter will be unable to attend.

OFFERS SCORING RULE FOR CHARGING UP "BONE-HEADS"

Oakland Club Official to Suggest Mental Errors Be Counted.

(By BILLY FITZ.)

H. S. McFarlin, assistant secretary of the Oakland Baseball Club, proposes a change in the scoring rules designed to take cognizance of "bonehead" plays. Modern box scores have no ment—and make provision only for errors of commission. Thus, if the third baseman makes a brilliant fielding play and the runner is safe at first because some boob of a first baseman overlooks the small matter of covering his bag, the runner goes out for a hit, even though he would have been a sure out had the guardian of the first foulout post attended to business.

McFarlin would insert a ruling to this effect: "The scorer shall charge a player with an error when, through palpable misjudgment, said player fails to make a fair catch of a ball after fielding a hit or foul ball, and when it is time to make a put out, when in the judgment of the scorer, such put out would have resulted but for such dereliction, also, player is to be charged with an error if he fails to catch in time to complete a play, which would result in the retirement of one or more opposing players, but for said dereliction."

Of course it is McFarlin's idea that the same discipline would be exercised by the scorer as is now done in charging them with the ordinary kind of an error. A hard chance in one case is no differ from a hard chance in the other. There are, however, some manner of cases in which it would be hard to score them, such as an infelicitous bagger credits as such because three infielders hold for a pop fly and then play a round-a-round-a-rope as sphere dents the diamond in their midst. If no one touched the ball, it goes for a hit and yet, in the opinion of the scorer, knows whose fault it was. Why McFarlin's suggestion is being sent back to the rules committee appointed by the major leagues.

Boxers Have Weakest Grips Of All Classes of Athletes

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 7.—Of all athletes, boxers have the weakest grips. This has been found to be the case, at least by those who have given athletes of various kinds the usual physical tests required for membership in most athletic organizations.

Among the tests is that of the grip. The man being examined is given an instrument consisting of two handles with an indicator between them. He squeezes the handles together and the indicator registers the strength in his hands.

It has been found that boxers show a very low average in this test. Many of them are far below the normal for an ordinary man who doesn't claim to be an athlete.

Joe Mandot, who was given a rigid physical test by Dr. J. A. Kimerer when he was in Detroit for his bout with Drouillard, has a very weak grip. It is noticeable in shaking hands with him. Mandot's hands are as soft and limp as a girl's.

How boxers can hit hard with knuckles that resemble rags is hard to explain.

Gossip of the Fighters

HERE'S THE GUNNER'S GOAT-GETTER

Gunboat Smith merely chuckles when he hears people criticize him for using that back hand grip in the clinches. During the Pelkey fight the Gunner was "boobed" for slipping the heel of his glove upward against the nostrils of his opponent.

That's one of the best little panaches in the world, laughed the Gunner, and it's perfectly legitimate, too. I don't hit my opponent with the heel of the glove, though it may look like that. Just brush my knuckles up past his face, and it usually catches him right under the nose. It doesn't really do any damage, and yet it's really good for damage, and yet it's the most devastating punch in the world. You can't teach a guy to follow his lead so quickly as that. Hit upward flip under the nose. That's why I use it and I've found that it answers the purpose admirably.

Any boxer who will have little difficulty in retrieving four pounds of it really weighs only 126 when out of training. Also, since Kilbane himself reads the article in question, he wants the fact to be generally known.

Cai Delaney, who was in Oakland last year with Johnny Kilbane, and tried to get a match with some of the 122 pounders in this vicinity, is going great guns back on the eastern ten-pound circuit.

ONE THING WILLARD COULD DO

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Owen Moran, the English fighter, today expressed the hope that he could live down the fact that he was one of Rodel's seconds when the boxer was knocked out to Jimmie Flynn.

Moran, according to the story told by his friend, was suggesting a plan of fightings, Willard to Rodel's manager.

He urged hooks, swings, etc.

"But Rodel can't do that," the manager always answered.

Finally Willard put over the K.O. Rodel rolled on the floor.

"Ga blime you," Moran murmured. "He can do that any 'ow."

PHELON HAS A NOVEL SCORING IDEA

Still another suggestion for scorers comes from the well known baseball scribe, William Phelon, who comes forward to the plate with a new version of the Cincinnati hit. Bill opines the C. H. is all right, but that we ought to credit it to the runner and not the batter. Says Phelon:

"Take a scene like this. Man on first, as he breaks for second, the batter hits, and is despatched to the pitcher; the ball bounds right at the pitcher, who wheels and throws to second, only to find that the fleeing runner, by a great burst of speed, is already there, while the ball is still in the air. What then?"

"Now, then, in such instances as this, why on earth should the batsman be credited with a hit for his clumsy effort, when only the agility and nerve of the runner have made it possible? It is, of course, a double play. Is anything, so far as justice and equity are concerned, the batsman to be blamed for a throw that might have grabbed everything but the quickness of the base runner?"

The author of the Cincinnati hit maintains that you can't tell what might have been; you can't say, "It would have been easy to get the batter first"; the fact remains that the batter wasn't caught, and so it must be a base hit. That argument—at least the "might have been,"

the secret uses his own judgment as to whether many a drive is registered as a hit or an error—he doesn't say "It was a hit" and in this secret can use judgment there, he can use judgment deciding plays of the Cincinnati bats hit pattern. If real justice were to be equitably done, the scoring rule should read like this:

"If a man on first makes a batted ball in the air to second, third, or home to head off a runner, and no put-out results, the play shall be scored as a base hit if, in the judgment of the secret, it would have been impossible for the runner to get to the base in time."

"If a man on first makes a batted ball in the air to second, third, or home to head off a runner, and no put-out results, the play shall be scored as a base hit if, in the judgment of the secret, it would have been impossible for the runner upon whom the attempted play was made had started to steal, and was cut off by the attempted steal, the play being one upon which the batsman might have been held at first, and the batsman with a stolen base, and the batsman with a time at bat."

"Wouldn't such scoring be far more just and equitable?"

Looks like Phelon has a logical platform.

BODIE'S OWN BRAND OF HIGHBALL

Ping Bodie, the Vallejo fence buster, has been the target for many hot shots during his major league baseball career. He has accepted most of them without getting back at the buges, but occasionally has been there with a blow for reporter both timely and convincing.

Ping was fined a small fortune one day last season for blowing the foam of a schooner of beer. Manager Jimmy Callahan had promised Ping this fine if he refrained from sampling the cuds all season. He happened to walk in just as Bodie was hitting a miniature bathtub brimming with cheer liquid from the bar.

"No thanks for you," said Cal, and Ping almost fainted. "Mind you, he had not even had the satisfaction of tasting the stuff."

Next day Ping didn't do so well at bat on his early trip to the plate. When he was called to the plate again, Ping snuffed: "You're no fence buster, Ping. You ought to be out selling peanuts and bananas. Your specialty is hitting high bats over the bar."

"With you, you think kind of a high ball can lift, right?" And, suitng the action to the words, he lifted the next ball over the fence. It was a convincing argument.

Arbogast came from the Western League, and finished the season behind the bat for the Seraphs. He is considered the best good catcher, but will remain a few days longer, so his intention to sell or trade him to some other club.

Stearns says the deal is not yet closed, but he has every reason to believe that it will be when he revisits the Angeles on January 10.

(By BILL CROSBY.)

A meeting of the directors of the Oakland Suburban Midwinter League was held last night at 1234 Fruitvale avenue.

The final affairs of the league were finished up and all managers, men who have been in semi-pro baseball for years, declared this series of games the best ever pulled off in Alameda county.

Take a scene like this. Man on first, as he breaks for second, the batter hits, and is despatched to the pitcher; the ball bounds right at the pitcher, who wheels and throws to second, only to find that the fleeing runner, by a great burst of speed, is already there, while the ball is still in the air. What then?"

"Now, then, in such instances as this, why on earth should the batsman be credited with a hit for his clumsy effort, when only the agility and nerve of the runner have made it possible? It is, of course, a double play. Is anything, so far as justice and equity are concerned, the batsman to be blamed for a throw that might have grabbed everything but the quickness of the base runner?"

The author of the Cincinnati bats hit pattern maintains that you can't tell what might have been; you can't say, "It would have been easy to get the batter first"; the fact remains that the batter wasn't caught, and so it must be a base hit. That argument—at least the "might have been,"

the secret uses his own judgment as to whether many a drive is registered as a hit or an error—he doesn't say "It was a hit" and in this secret can use judgment there, he can use judgment deciding plays of the Cincinnati bats hit pattern. If real justice were to be equitably done, the scoring rule should read like this:

"If a man on first makes a batted ball in the air to second, third, or home to head off a runner, and no put-out results, the play shall be scored as a base hit if, in the judgment of the secret, it would have been impossible for the runner to get to the base in time."

"If a man on first makes a batted ball in the air to second, third, or home to head off a runner, and no put-out results, the play shall be scored as a base hit if, in the judgment of the secret, it would have been impossible for the runner upon whom the attempted play was made had started to steal, and was cut off by the attempted steal, the play being one upon which the batsman might have been held at first, and the batsman with a stolen base, and the batsman with a time at bat."

"Wouldn't such scoring be far more just and equitable?"

Looks like Phelon has a logical platform.

The Pianola

Is the Piano and the Art to Play it Combined

Sit at the PIANOLA. Play! Softly the first plaintive minor chords fall. You trace the red Metrostyle line—the guiding record of Paderewski, of Greig, of some master musician, lead you as an infinitely patient, painstaking teacher. The music quickens. The melody rises clear above the accompaniment, swinging more rapidly. You are all attention now. Every nerve is alert. Don't miss that crashing chord. Such wonderful work this—it is real musician's music which you and the PIANOLA are capable of, and in producing it there is all the joy of making music with your own hands and brains. Truly the PIANOLA is the Piano and the art to play it combined

No player piano can approach PIANOLA music. Unfortunately, the general public and many music houses refer to all player pianos as "PIANOLAS"—they are not PIANOLAS—there is only one PIANOLA made exclusively by the Aeolian Company and obtainable only in these six pianos—Steinway, Weber, Steck, Wheelock, Stuyvesant and Stroud.

Prices from $575 up. Your present piano taken in exchange. Moderate payment terms if desired.

MARE ISLAND NOTES

INCOME TAX LAW IN ITS DETAIL

J. J. Scott, Collector of Internal Revenue, Gives Pointers on Pending Tax.

There having been considerable misunderstanding regarding the amount of exemption that will be allowed under the federal income tax law to a man and wife when living together, attention has been called to Collector of Internal Revenue Joseph J. Scott to the following instructions in order that each married person may be informed as to just what are his or her rights. The misunderstanding seems to have arisen from the assumption by many that a husband and wife living together would be entitled to an aggregate exemption of $7000, whereas the law provides that an aggregate exemption shall be only $4000.

Husband and wife living together will be entitled to this exemption of $4000 from the aggregate net income of both, and this exemption may be deducted in making the return of such aggregate net income of the tax. However, when the husband and wife are separated and permanently apart from each other, each shall be entitled to the statutory exemption of $2000 allowed a single person.

NAMES MUST BE SHOWN.

If the husband and wife not living apart have separate estates, the income from both may be made on one return, but the amounts of income of each, and the taxes and expenses of both must be shown in such return.

The husband, at the head and legal representative of the household and general custodian of its income, should make and render the return of the aggregate income of himself and wife and for the purpose of levying the income tax it is assumed that he can ascertain the total amount of said income.

If a wife has a separate estate managed by herself as her own separate property and receives an income of more than $2000, she may make return of her own income, and if the husband has other net income, making the aggregate of both incomes more than $4000, the wife's return shall be attached to the return of her husband, or his income should be included in her return, in order that a deduction of $4000 may be made from the aggregate of both incomes. The tax in such case, however, will be imposed only upon so much of the aggregate income of both as shall exceed $4000.

MUST INCLUDE INCOME.

If either husband or wife separately has an income equal to or in excess of $3000, a return of annual net income is required under the law and such return must include the income of both and in such case the return must be made even though the combined income of both is less than $4000.

If the aggregate net income of both exceeds $4000 an annual return of their combined incomes must be made in the manner stated, although neither one separately has an income of $2000 per annum. They are jointly and separately liable for such return and for payment of the tax.

The single or married status of the person claiming the specific exemption shall be determined as of the time of claiming such exemption if such claim is made within the year for which return is made, otherwise the status at the close of the year.

FOX INDIAN TRIBE
NEARING EXTINCTION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Extermination of the once famous tribe of Fox Indians of Iowa, unless efforts of the government to check disease among them proves successful, is predicted by Dr. Truman Michelson of the Bureau of Ethnology of the Smithsonian Institution. In an address before the Anthropological Society of Washington Dr. Michelson declared that tuberculosis is now common among the tribe and that scarcely a family exists without it. In 1871 a census of the Fox tribe showed a population of 2000. Dr. Michelson said at present it numbers 150.

Elections in connection with the removal of Keller is legal and Hartman's suit is in proper form. A trial date has been set for January 20 and will be given to the court when Torney will accept the bond and allow the appointee to qualify.

MUD FLATS SOON TO BE FINE CITY PARK

VALLEJO, Jan. 7.—The big hydraulic dredger belonging to the North American Dredging Company, now number one in the world, has been turned into the Vallejo park site and it will not be long until the big area of swamp land is filled in. Owing to the soil being exceptionally soft it has a tendency to run through the Southern Pacific tracks and the dredger has to go around this a system of steps has been installed inside the gates.

This plan does not prove successful it will be necessary to clear the gates until the mud is dry.

Sunday afternoon, the members of the Wilson Park Improvement Club erected a flag pole at the Solano avenue entrance to the park. The flag which will be displayed from the pole next Saturday when the club celebrates the completion of work on the park by holding a banquet at the Sherman house.

ALL-VALLEJOS LOSE AT BASKETBALL

VALLEJO, Jan. 7.—The absence of Culver and Dressler from the All-Vallejos basketball team has caused the defeat of the local team in the recently won Cleland team at the Vallejo drill hall by a score of 16 to 15, in favor of the sailors who put up a great exhibition. This is the first game the All-Vallejos have suffered any defeat since last night's defeat next Sunday afternoon, when game will be played at the St. Vincent convent school court in Florida street if the weather permits.

STATE HIGHWAY TO SURVEY NEW ROAD

VALLEJO, Jan. 7.—Secretary E. E. Westergreen of the Vallejo Chamber of Commerce received word yesterday from Commissioner Blahey of the State Highway commission that the survey will be made this week from the Contra Costa county line to the site of the proposed causeway at the Calaveras cut.

Commissioner Blahey states in his letter that he believes that the road to the proposed causeway can be constructed at a small expense.

TO MEET AT CROCKETT.

VALLEJO, Jan. 7.—Secretary D. E. Watkins of the California State Automobile association sent word here today that he will come to Vallejo next Saturday to meet with the Vallejo Valley Auto Club at the Chamber of Commerce headquarters in Sacramento street and complete the organization of the Solano County Automobile association. It is expected that there will be a large attendance of auto enthusiasts, now the committee's work.

Secretary Watkins has promised to explain in full the new so-called State auto tax law during the meeting Monday evening.

BOARD ADJOURNS.

VALLEJO, Jan. 7.—After subpoenaing Dr. J. R. Malone, a civilian resident of Key West, Florida, to testify at the Bleeker court martial at Mare Island this week, the board that is to conduct the trial of the officer of the gunboat Yorktown adjourned Monday evening again this afternoon for a short session. The subpoena of a physician looks to many of the Mare Island officials as though Pavemaster Bleeker will base his fight on the fact that his health was not the best when he is said to have committed the alleged misdeeds of indolence.

TO MEET AT CROCKETT.

The recently organized roller basketball team of this city will go to Crockett a week from next Saturday night to meet the fair roller girls of that place. The Vallejo team, which is composed of Chester Smith, center, and Fabiansen and De Celle, guards, is in great shape and will give the Crockett players a hard game. Basketball on skates is said to be a very interesting and exciting game.

RUN-DOWN

FOR YEARS

Strength Restored by Vinol.

Strength and even life itself depends upon nourishment and proper assimilation of food, and unless digestion is good the whole body suffers.

W. C. W. Bussey of Moundsville, W. Va., says: "For years I was in a weakened, run-down condition, and I could not find anything that would help me. Vinol was recommended and I tried it. Before I finished the first bottle I was better. I continued to use and am as well as ever. I have gotten several neighbors to take Vinol with the same result."

We know the great power of Vinol, our delicious cold liver and iron tonic without oil, in building up all weakened, run-down persons, and for trouble, and that is why we guarantee to return your money if it does not help you. The Owl Drug Co., Oakland, Calif.

NEW FIRST M. E. CHURCH READY FOR DEDICATION

250 IMMIGRANTS UNDER TYPHOID OBSERVATION

The new building of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Twenty-fourth and Broadway, will be dedicated Sunday, January 18, when Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes of San Francisco will deliver the dedicatory sermon. Rev. George W. White, pastor of the church, will preside over the exercises. An augmented choir and soloists are preparing for the services, which will be the first to be held in the $165,000 edifice. The program of sacred numbers is being arranged by Edwin Dunbar Crandall, choir director. The dedication services will cover a period of one week.

Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, the Sunday school will hold its first session, with H. Morton, superintendent, in charge. The services throughout the week will be in charge of the following church organizations: Monday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, the Sunday school; Tuesday evening, the missionary societies; Wednesday evening, the Epworth leagues; Thursday evening, the Young Men's League and the Men's Brotherhood; and Friday, the Ladies' Aid Society.

The new building is one of the handsomest churches in the city. It is Spanish Renaissance in style of architecture. The auditorium is finished in oak, and there are a number of handsome pictorial stained glass windows showing scenes from the life of Christ. The organ from the old church has been rebuilt and will accord with the new structure.
